Dear Friends,

We wanted to let you know Dad, Ed "Curley" Holz, passed away on 9 April. You will appreciate that he had his usual big breakfast that morning. There isn't a service at this time as he and Mom will be buried in the same urn.

Dad always enjoyed getting together with all of you. Mom and I always appreciated how good you were to him. The messages and photo from club members that have been posted to the funeral home site have been touching to read.

Dad's great nephew is turning out to be a fine woodworker. Dad was happy to pass his tools on to Ian.

Right to the end, Dad's sense of humor remained. I usual woke him with, "Good morning, Sunshine." On mornings when he was having trouble waking up he often came back with, "Today I'm a Fog." One morning we were talking that Mom and Dad's 70th anniversary was coming up. He said, "Maxine must be quite elderly." He had that big grin all over his face.

Thank you for all the years of friendship you gave Dad.

With gratitude,

Maxine & Byron
